

“IF FOR THIS YOU AND I MUST DIFFER, DIFFER WE MUST”

(Abraham Lincoln, 1855)

Strategies for Loving Each Other in Times of Polarization

Saturday, October 26th

1-3 PM

Shenkel UCC Fellowship Hall

1580 Shenkel Road, Pottstown, PA

Guest Facilitator Rev. Bill Worley, Conference Minister of PA Southeast Conference of the United Church of Christ

The political, cultural, and social differences in communities, churches and families are stark and can, at times, divide people who love each other. This event will focus on enabling conversations and individual soul-work for engaging with friends and neighbors who differ on important issues.